MEMORIAL BRIDGE
IS AUTHORIZED

Public Buildings Bill Also Provides for Site for George Washington Hall.

TOTALS FIFTY MILLIONS

Senate Tacks on $3,000,000 for New Federal Courthouse in New York.

Authorization for a memorial bridge connecting Washington and Arlington, and donation of the Pennsylvania Station site in Sixth Street south of Pennsylvania Avenue for George Washington Memorial Hall, are provided in the public buildings bill as it will be reported to the Senate today.

The memorial bridge would cost $5,000,000, it is provided.

No appropriation is made for the George Washington Memorial Hall.

The fee to the land to remain in the government, but the use is conveyed to the promoters of the George Washington Memorial Hall, which is to be used for great civic gatherings and scientific conventions, or other assemblages in Washington.

The idea originated with Mrs. Henry F. Dimock, sister of the late Henry C. Whitney, who has remained in consideration of the donation by the government of the land, to raise a fund of $2,000,000 to erect the memorial building. A bill introduced by Senator Root to carry out the objects proposed by Mrs. Dimock has heretofore passed the Senate.

Twenty million dollars was added by the Senate Public Buildings Committee to the omnibus public buildings bill, as that measure passed the House and came to the Senate, increasing the total of the buildings bill to nearly $50,000,000.

One increase by the Senate was $2,000,000, authorized for the purchase of the site for a new Federal courthouse in New York City.

NARROW ESCAPE FOR AUTOISTS.

Washington Man Drives Machine Into Wagon in Dark.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Hyattsville, Md., Feb. 20.—Two young men, one giving the name of Arthur Williams, of Washington, and the other stating he was a son of former Gov. Brown of Maryland, had a narrow escape from serious injury about 3 o'clock this morning, when the automobile in which they were returning from the auto show in Baltimore collided with a farm wagon owned by Charles Wright, of near Berwyn.

The accident occurred at the north-east entrance to the town in the Washington-Baltimore Boulevard. Young Brown was thrown out of the machine when it plunged into the bank on the side of the road after wrecking the running gear of the farmer's wagon. He was not seriously injured. Mr. Williams was driving the machine, and claims that his lights were not working properly. The machine stuck in the mud for more than three hours, and was hauled out by employees of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company. The automobile continued to Washington after paying Wright $25 for damages to his wagon.

A car owner patented by a Wisconsin inventor consists of a padded shaft, to be inserted into the center of the top of a gas, along which is a wheel with a knife edge to be rolled around the car.

WANT REPUBLICAN IN OFFICE.

Democrats Urge Appointment of G. O. P. for Postmaster.

Senator Pomeroy (Dem.) of Ohio, was surprised yesterday when he received a petition signed by five applicants. Democrats, for appointment as postmaster at Kent, in northern Ohio, urging him to use his good offices to bring about the confirmation by the Senate of a Republican whose nomination was sent in by President Taft and is held up by the Senate.

In view of the fact that the Republican, if confirmed, would serve during the term of Wilson administration, practically there is some curiosity here to know just what circumstances influenced the action of the five self-sacrificing Democrats of Kent.

Delicious "Goodies"—How to Make Them.

Dakota Caramels.

Two cups brown sugar, 1 cup molasses, 1-4 pound grated chocolate, 1-2 cup butter, 1 cup milk, 1 cup shelled, chopped nuts. Put all the ingredients, except the nuts, into a large saucepan, cook 20 minutes over a gentle heat, and then test by dropping a little of the mixture into cold water. If it forms a firm ball remove from the fire, add the chopped nuts and pour into a greased tin. Cut into squares when nearly cold.

Seafum.

Two cups brown sugar, 1-2 cup water, 1 egg white, 1-2 cup chopped nuts, 1 teaspoon vanilla extract. Boil the sugar and water together till a little dropped in cold water forms a soft ball. Pour the hot mixture over the nuts, beat vigorously with the egg, beating while pouring. Add nuts and extract and beat vigorously until set drop by spoonful on paper.

When cold the seafum will harden so that it can be easily taken from the paper.

Creamed Walnuts.

Two cups granulated sugar, 1-2 cup water, vanilla or other extract, shelled walnuts. Cook the sugar and water, without stirring, till a little lifted from the pan on a fork will form a thread. Cool quickly and then add flavoring. Beat with a spoon till white, and then add the walnuts.

Molasses Candy.

Two cups molasses, 2 cups brown sugar, 2 tablespoons butter 1-2 cup fat, 1-4 cup vinegar. Put all the ingredients, except the vinegar, add the vinegar and cook fast till a little of the mixture dropped into cold water feels brittle; add the vinegar, cook two minutes more and pour into a greased pan to cool. As soon as it can be easily handled, pull with the fingers till white. Cut into pieces before it is too hard.

Flaky Paste.

Three cups flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 cup butter, or lard and butter mixed, 1-2 cup cold water. Sift together the flour and salt, chop in the lard and butter with a knife till well mixed with the flour. Make to a dough with cold water. Roll out to an oblong shape on a floured board, fold together and roll twice more. If possible, chill the paste before using.

Banbury Tarts.

One cup raisins, 1 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1 soda cracker, grated rind of 1 lemon. Stone and chop the raisins; add the sugar, the egg well beaten, the cracker rolled till fine, then the lemon rind. Roll the paste thinly and line small tarts with it. Fill with the mixture, and bake about twenty minutes.
